

APPLICANT PRIVACY NOTICE

Completion of the applicant account registration process constitutes your consent to the processing of personal information in conjunction with your job application.

Minnetronix Medical acknowledges your expectation of privacy and confidentiality regarding the personal information you provide in connection with your application for employment and will comply with all applicable data protection laws. Minnetronix Medical uses the personal information requested during this application process to evaluate your application for employment and for other customary human resources purposes.

Data collected may include your full name, contact information, job title, company information, IP address, general location, language preference, professional and educational information, CV/resume, device and usage information, or any other personal information you may provide.

Your consent is required for Minnetronix Medical to manage your personal information throughout the application process and, if applicable, your terms of employment or engagement. Your personal information may also be used to monitor recruitment initiatives and equal opportunity policies.

You understand and agree that upon submission of this online application, Minnetronix Medical may use your personal information, which you have voluntarily provided, to contact you for recruitment, interviewing, and employment purposes, to process your employment, and for other employment-related purposes. You also understand and agree that Minnetronix Medical may share your personal information with its affiliates, necessary third parties that process data on Minnetronix Medical's behalf, regulatory authorities, or as required by law.

Minnetronix Medical may disclose your personal information to verify or obtain additional information about you from third parties as permitted or required by law. This may include educational institutions, present and past employers, and, if applicable, credit reference agencies. Minnetronix Medical may share personal information with Minnetronix Medical's professional advisors, who are bound to meet privacy and security standards consistent with Minnetronix Medical's policies.

By providing information to Minnetronix Medical, you understand and consent to the transfer of this information out of the country in which it was collected to other countries or territories, including the United States. You acknowledge that this transfer may involve jurisdictions that provide a different level of privacy protection than that available in your own country.

If your application is unsuccessful, Minnetronix Medical will retain your personal information for up to three years, as required by labor laws, to potentially inform you of future job opportunities that align with your skills.

If you have any questions about how your data will be used, or if you would like to remove your data from Minnetronix Medical's records and future employment considerations, please email info@Minnetronixmedical.com.
